Restaurants Reimagined for Us

March 15th, Governor Newsom directed restaurants statewide to cut their seating capacity in half and practice “social distancing” between guest parties.

March 16th, Governor Newsom moved away from that request and directed restaurants statewide to operate only via take out, delivery, drive thru, and curbside pick-up.

March 19th, Governor Newsom announced a statewide “shelter in place” policy, which limited statewide restaurant operations to take-out, drive thru, and delivery services to consumers.

Restaurants Matter

Cornerstone of every community.

Economic engine that employs 1.4 million.

Generates more sales tax ($7.2 billion annually) than any other industry.

3 Weeks of COVID-19 Impact

Estimated more than 1 million restaurant employees in California have been laid off or furloughed since the beginning of the coronavirus outbreak in March.

Represents at least 70% of the 1,467,000 employees that were working at California's eating and drinking places in February.

49% of California operators say they temporarily closed their restaurant since the beginning of the coronavirus outbreak in March.

Restaurants Matter

1.4 million Californians employed in restaurants.

Most diverse workforce.

Did you know that in California people of color.....

- own 60% of California's restaurants.
- are 64% of restaurant wait staff.
- are 70% of restaurant management.
- are 80% of California's chefs.

Restaurants Matter

Largest source of sales tax payments to California.

Estimated $7.2 billion, or 12.3% of all sales tax collected in the state.

Sales tax revenue collected by restaurants and other eating establishments funds $1.4 billion of the K-12 education budget, equivalent to $238 per student. The highest of any industry.

Restaurants contribute to $0.9 billion in local public safety budgets (primarily police & fire)- more than any other industry.

Restaurants contribute $1.1 billion to transportation projects- more than any other industry.

BECAUSE WE VALUE

YOU.

Nationally, an average of 95¢ of every dollar restaurant customers spend goes into the food, employees and the place.

Come again!
